

DIED

At her residence in Green Township, in this county, on Thursday last, Mrs. KENDALL, wife of Ewell Kendall.

The deceased was near one hundred years of age, and it may be truly said of her that she lived as long as life under the circumstances was desirable.

Mr. Kendall, as is known by most of our citizens, was struck with palsy some four years since, and his life has frequently been almost despaired of. It is also pretty generally known that about 18 months ago, three desperados went into the house of these old and helpless people, and robbed them of all the money they could find on the premises.

We sympathize with our old friend in his bereavement.

How base must be the wretches who can deliberately go to the house of such helpless old people, in the dead hour of night, and rob them of their honest earnings of earlier years, which they had laid up to be of use to them in their last days. A day will come when justice will be meted out.

On last Saturday night, at her residence in Plymouth, Mrs. JULIA ANN JOHNSON, wife of S. S. Johnson. A funeral sermon was preached by Rev. N. L. Loom, Text: Eccl. xii. 7.

CHOLIC CURED IN 10 MINUTES.—Dr. Wm. B. FARRER.—This is to certify that I have used your Liniment in cases of Belly-ache in horses, and it has never failed in any case. I use a 25 cent bottle, and about one quart of water. In five or ten minutes after it is taken down, the horse will be relieved from pain. I would use a little more in very desperate cases, although I never failed with a 25 cent bottle. Respectfully yours, H. HENDERSON, Chanabon, Will county, Ill. Jan. 10, 1852.
